Kids panto proposals

- Robin hood as fallback
- Charles proposing Dick Whittington
- Already written and performed and tailored to appropriate age-group (6-8year olds)
- Idiosyncratic
- Some innuendo may need to be taken out
- About 45mins
- Some language may be too complicated for children
- Hannah – set pieces – some are there (He’s behind you, oh no he isn’t) could put in some slapstick
- Songs – one song at end
- Charles would direct if asked to and is happy for it to be edited
- Set – none really needed, music needs to be put in

Charles leaves, committee have short discussion

- Aimed at right audience, just needs a bit of editing
- Committee happy to use it

- Production team – Hannah, Lottie and Kate
- Director – Charles Scherer
- Actors – Nat, Lottie, Rich, Kate, Tim, Hannah and possibly James
- No need for MD

- At least 4 schools interested – one very interested, 3 want more details via email

- Drum to tech and provide car

Action: James to announce in newsletter

Socials

- Coffee crawl on 25th
- Start at 2pm
- Route: Triangle – Clifton – ending up in Boston Tea party

Action: Kate to get list of places to James

Website

Update

- Recap for Drum
- Bad, naughty committee still need to email websites
- Layout wise – Pete wants to keep buttons on left-hand side

Actions – Committee to email what websites they like (and why)

Stores

Water, water everywhere....

- 2nd floor store flooded
- Adam is our hero
- Stuff back in but some needs washing/drying
- Rosencrantz and Guildenstern team went into 2nd without permission – James has sorted it
- Pete thinks we should have photocards
- SMSC meeting soon – raise it there – get other PA societies to pass on info during handover
- Societies confused over 2nd floor stores
- Panto is in charge of 4th and 2nd – need to go through panto
- Fair as panto maintain it
- Porters want a list of names and photos
- 6th floor is communal and storage for shows
- Metal cupboard outside 4th is panto only – special things (like Dobbin)
